NOTICE

5th August, 2020

Dear Member.

We have come to know that the Bar Council of India has requested various Bar Associations to send details of practicing Advocates, who are members of the concerned Bar Associations in the prescribed format. The details are to be furnished to the e-committee of the Supreme Court. The data is being collected to make available all facilities and features of digitalization and e-courts to the Advocates. The Supreme Court through its e-committee has been introducing various technological features and facilities to aid and assist lawyers in the process of filing and handling of Court matters, getting updates, etc.

We request you to provide the details by filling in the form and send it to the society on or before 12th August 2020.

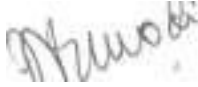

Please press on this link or copy paste it into Google Chrome browser to open, fill and submit the form :

If the forms are found to be incomplete, the details may not be forwarded to the BCI, which kindly note.

Thanking you

For The Bombay Incorporated Law Society
